HOME AND SCHOOL COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Teacher E-Mail Addresses: All teachers at this school have been issued e-mail addresses.

The following narrative about how this school promotes and supports parental involvement was submitted by this school.

- A bi-weekly family newsletter highlighting events and information is sent home to families.
 - Classroom newsletters inform parents of classroom instruction, parent tips, and ways to support their children at home.
 - Two formal parent-teacher conferences are held each year to discuss student progress as well as communication by phone, e-mail and notes.
 - Books for newborns are sent home to families with tips for developing literacy skills.
 - Communication goes home in English, Spanish and Vietnamese.
 - Our school website highlights important school information.
 - A family directory is prepared by our PTO each year to connect families.
 - Our ESOL staff offers parent workshops to help families understand our school policies and procedures, how to help their children to be successful in school and support them with their homework. They also sponsor social opportunities for parents to meet other families.
 - Parents and community volunteers are utilized in the classroom, by the office and for family activities.
 - Our media specialist sponsors a yearly Book Fair to encourage families to enrich their home libraries.
 - Classroom teachers developed a system to monitor home reading.
 - Our Special Persons Day Assembly

EFFORTS TO REDUCE RACIAL, ETHNIC, AND ECONOMIC ISOLATION

Below is the description submitted by this school of how it provides educational opportunities for its students to interact with students and teachers from diverse racial, ethnic, and economic backgrounds.

Webster Hill School has a diverse population representing families from over 30 countries. In an effort to unify and recognize our rich cultural heritage, the following initiatives are in place:

- The Parent Teacher Organization offers many family events that bring our diverse community together.
 - Each month an Author's Tea is held to celebrate the writing accomplishments of children from all racial, ethnic and economic backgrounds. Family and friends are invited to attend.
 - Our choir, orchestra and band perform international music at our winter and spring concerts.
 - We received a grant for a Sister School Project with a school in East Hartford. The exchange culminated in an assembly at both schools where children from both schools performed with an African drummer on native instruments.
 - Through our character education initiatives, students learn the value of diversity and respect for others.
 - The West Hartford Cultural Council brings performances to our school, which celebrates racial and ethnic diversity.
 - Between the Cultural Council and district and school efforts, children at Webster Hill School benefited from Kwasi Dunyo-master drummer from Ghana, Pat Bade- guest speaker on Native Americans, Motoko-Artist in Residence, kindergarten Mexico study, first grade Africa study, second grade Japan study, third grade Native American study, our Cultural Family picnic, Culture Day, Vietnamese/Chinese New Year Parade, and kindergarten "Great Artists Across the Globe" curriculum.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PLANS AND ACTIVITIES

The following narrative was submitted by this school.

- Continue to refine our literacy program to meet the varying reading levels of our students.
- Continue the implementation of the Trailblazers math program in Grades K-5
- Continue the focus on our school improvement plan developed in 2006.
- Continue to provide differentiated instruction to meet the varying needs of our students.
- Continue to offer enrichment opportunities before, during and after school such as a Weather Club, Art Club, Science Enrichment, Choir, Orchestra, Band, Stock Market Club, and Yoga Club.
- Continue to use our weekly family bulletin to inform parents of strategies they can use at home to improve student learning.
- Continue our support in mathematics with a mathematics tutor.
- Increase the support in our classrooms by the special education staff.
- Transitional language program in Spanish and Vietnamese will continue this year.
- “Writing in the Classroom” presentation by Doug Kaufman for kindergarten and grade 4.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHOOL INFORMATION

The space below was optionally used by this school to describe aspects of the school not presented elsewhere in the profile.

Webster Hill School is a warm, caring environment where the staff puts the children first. We have a high rate of parent volunteerism and an active PTO that sponsors many family activities. Our international population reflects families from over thirty countries. The following highlights some of our accomplishments:

- Our Living Courtyard includes a butterfly house, annual and perennial gardens, an ecology pond and a School Net 8 Weather Station. Our school is an award-winning model school in the Automated Weather Source network and we are part of the weather network for the US Homeland Security Network. We raise, tag and release over 100 Monarch butterflies and are affiliated with the University of Kansas Monarch Migration Project.
 - An early intervention reading program is available for Grade 1 students and a reading specialist and reading lab teacher provide additional reading and writing support in Grades K-5.
 - Webster Hill has a model intra-school post office recognized by the US Postal System.
 - An after-school Homework Center is provided for homework support.
 - Fifth grade students attend Nature’s Classroom for an outdoor education experience that emphasizes cooperation, problem solving, scientific inquiry and physical fitness.
 - The PTO sponsors an artist-in-residence each year.
 - Webster Hill is committed to a positive learning environment where children are respectful and responsible.
 - The QUEST program provides for the learning needs of our gifted and talented students.
